The Publisher returns his sincere thanks to those Gentlemen who have generously assisted him in completing the going Lists, and earnestly intreats their future favours.

He is sensible many errors must necessarily occur in work of this kind---but he hopes from the candid public, not only their excuse but their kind assistance: This he is encouraged to expect from past experience of their favours, and he flatters himself that the Register for 1773, will be the most correct of the kind hitherto published in America.

Frequent application has been made to the publisher to insert a List of the Justices of the Quorum, Coroners, and Deputy-Sheriffs; he therefore begs leave to intreat the Clerks of the Quarter Sessions, to furnish him with a List of the Justices in their respective Counties, with those of the Quorum particularly distinguished and also of their several Coroners. And he also entreats the High-Sheriffs of the several Counties, to transmit him a List of their Deputies any time between the date of this and the end of November next, at which time he proposes to publish his Register for the year 1773.
